Potential Employer:

I would first like to open up with sincere thanks and gratitude for taking the opportunity and time to review my resume. I can understand how time consuming and difficult searching for new employees can be, however I can assure you this will be promising.

With my gratitude expressed, I wish to present myself as a qualified candidate for your job offering. It is my hope that two things will come across within my resume:

1. I am an experienced, diverse, and creative professional.
2. I am a man of character.

From starting my own businesses, to managing a local Miami Drywall Company, to internships with the Speaker of the House of Florida and non-profits, and to a host of other professional endeavors expressed in my resume, I present myself as a professional candidate with excellent character. Although my experience is vast, my flexibility, drive to learn, and work ethic are even greater. I pledge myself as a candidate who will provide that rare 110% effort.

In addition to experience and effort, I pledge myself as a man of patience, responsibility, ethics, morals, persistence, organization, character, success, creativity, and charisma. These are merely some of those traits that support me in being an ideal candidate, and its these qualities that I believe can make a great addition to your team.

I look forward to hearing from you so that we may schedule an interview as soon as possible, and continue to discuss this position and what I am willing to provide.

Thank you and God Bless,
